

Minutes
Waterfront Advisory Committee
Zoom
January 18, 2020

Attending: Christina Bohnsack, Donald Dubac, Martin Overington, Kaare Christian, Jo Hills, Doris Dubac

Meeting called to order at 7:07 by Chairman Christina Bohnsack

Announcements

Bohnsack will be chair of the new Climate Smart Committee and asked for volunteers to work on projects. Martin Overington will co-chair the Waterfront Committee with her and will lead the WAC meetings.

The minutes were reviewed and Kaare Christian made a motion to accept them as written, Donald Dubac seconded the motion, all approved.

There is $1923.86 in our account with the Town. Tracey Martin from Ottos deposited $300 from tote sales and $300 from the holiday match.

The Germantown Library is presenting a history of Cheviot by Town Historian Tom Shannon on Zoom on Wednesday, January 20 at 6:30.

AMTRAK

Riverkeeper's Jen Benson, Outreach and Rebecca Martin, Acting Director of Community Relationships asked for updates on the Amtrak situation. Christian (speaking as a person who lives on near the tracks) and Jeff Anzevino of Riverkeeper joined John Bowermaster on Green Radio Hour on Radio Kingston. It will be posted online on January 24.

Germantown Neighborhood Association Grant

Since the nursery trade show which usually meets in January has been cancelled because of Covid, Bohnsack has not been able to get estimates from local nurseries for the trees for Cheviot Landing. She will respond to Dorothy Montague with out these numbers.

Cheviot Kiosk Update

Due to confusion as to where the posts were to be placed, the posts are not yet in so construction of the kiosk has been on hold. Bohsnack and Christian will try to meet with Anthony Cidras and Tillou at the Park. Prints and the bulletin board for the kiosk have arrived.

Riversweep

Set for May 1, 2020. Christian reported lots of trash including a truck bed, chairs and bottles. There was interest in participating.

The next meeting will be March 1.

Motion to adjourn by Hills, seconded by Christian, all in favor.

Meeting adjourned at 7:40.
